

A Confident Heart—Week 1 Notes

“Rarely do we have the privilege of opening a book in the presence of the author. Every time we open Scripture, we have that privilege.” ~ Mike Glenn ~

At Your Tables

How would you describe someone that has “a confident heart”?
What does a confident heart that look like?

Intro Video

- Renee listed 3 main goals of her book in the video. Which are you most excited about and why?
- A Lie Satan will try to tell you: “Being confident will make me prideful and selfish.” - John 13:3-5 Truth: Being confident in who we are is what God desires!
- I’m not good enough. I don’t have anything special to offer. I’m always disappointing someone. I’ll never change.
Where have you seen these doubts or the results of them in your own life, the lives of people you know, and/or our culture as a whole?
- Describe a time when insecurity or self doubt kept you from doing something.
